

The logo for King's Venues, featuring the words "KING'S" and "VENUES" in a bold, white, sans-serif font stacked vertically inside a solid red square.

KING'S VENUES

King's Venues – post-conference entertainment

We pride ourselves on having some of the most beautiful spaces in London, boasting some of the most fabulous views. But that's only half the story. The other half starts as soon as you step out of one of our venues, into one of the world's most exciting and vibrant cities. We've rounded up some of the best bars, restaurants and attractions you'll find just round the corner from the heart of King's Venues' locations.

Where we are

Our most popular central London venues are based between Waterloo Bridge and Tower Bridge on both the North and South bank of the River Thames. All of the post-conference entertainment ideas we've rounded up for you are within a 10-minute walk of this little stretch of the river and with our prices being particularly competitive, you should have a little budget spare to treat your delegates to a night on the town.

Food

Where to begin?! For eateries with delicious food and an amazing view, check out SKYLON (British cuisine, fabulous cocktails) and The Oxo Tower Restaurant (seasonal menu, extensive wine list), both on the Southbank. Gaucha is located right next to Tower Bridge and the Gherkin and serves some of the best steak in the capital. A quick hop over the river will land you at Northbank restaurant, which faces the beautiful, bustling Millennium Bridge - a stunning setting in which to enjoy your Cornish-inspired dinner.

Drinks

Vinopolis is an uber cool venue with several bars and restaurants. You can organise group bookings for wine tastings in its spectacular vaulted cellars or if you think your delegates would prefer something more hop-based, its beer arm Brew Wharf has a wide range of local beers to sample. For gin (39 varieties if you're counting) and cocktails, Gillray's Bar at the Marriott County Hall is well worth a visit.

Theatre

Just a stone's throw from our Strand Campus on the north side of the river, the capital's world-famous Theatreland begins. From The Lion King and Charlie and the Chocolate Factory to War Horse and Les Miserables, there will be something to suit every one of your delegate's tastes.

The Old Vic and The Young Vic on the south side of the river offer audiences a more alternative repertoire of plays and a little further along the river you'll find Shakespeare's Globe. If you're organising a night out for your delegates you'll be able to benefit from group discounts, but make sure you book early.

Attractions

The South Bank is a significant spot on the London cultural map. The South Bank Centre, Royal Festival Hall, The Hayward Gallery and the Royal National Theatre all host major arts and entertainment events – many of them free – so it's well worth finding out what's going on over your conference dates.

The London Eye has been a staple tourist attraction since it opened to the public in 2000. The huge Ferris wheel gives visitors an unrivalled view of some of London's best bits and the 'capsules' are available for private and corporate hire. Other fabulous attractions include The London Dungeon, Sea Life London Aquarium and Madame Tussauds.

Get in touch

If you need any advice on post-conference entertainment after your next King's Venue event, don't hesitate to get in touch with the Events Team on 020 7847 1700. They'll be more than happy to assist you in your search.